North Takes Second

South High clubbed four pitchers for nine hits Friday to beat Mira Costa, 9-2, and win the Bay League baseball crown for the second year.

Dick Foulk, who pitched four innings against North High on Wednesday, came back to hurl the first five innings against the Mustangs. The only hit he gave up was a third-innings 2-run home run to Brent Spencer.

South led, 4-0, at the time on a 3-run first inning and a singleton in the second. The Spartans kayoed Johnny Sain who pitched seven of the Mustang's eight victories.

Brent Barron singled home two runs in the first frame and combined with Steve Trudell on a double steal situation to score the third run. Roy Ricks and Dick Foulk

HOME PLATE BLOCKED... Trying to score from third on an infield out, Jeff Wang of South is tagged out at the plate by Catcher Pat Moore of Mira Costa in the sixth inning. Wang tripled a moment earlier and was deprived of a home run by two base runners who slowed the traffic ahead of him. South won the game, 9-2, to win the Bay League championship. (Press-Herald Photo)

Foulk ran out of his nine innings for the week in the sixth inning and Dennis Rector finished up on the mound.

THINGS were rather hectic for South on Wednesday when North whacked the champions, 7-5, on the South diamond.

North ripped 12 hits, including four-for-five by lead-off man Scott Bee, to send Wade Linstad to the showers between the third and fourth innings.

Down 40 in the second, South loaded the bases but could not score. The Spartans finally teed off on Brad Rooker for three runs in the fourth after the score got to 7-0.

First baseman Brent Barron of South socked a pair of hits in both games to win the praise of Coach Jerry McIlvaine.

The two Torrance teams will compete in the CIF "AAA" playoffs next week.

Palos Verdes, which won the title more than a week ago, split a pair of concluding games against Aviation. P.V. won Tuesday, 8-1, but lost the finale, 8-0. Jerry Anderson threw a five-hitter against the champions.

Rivalry Sizzles

By HENRY BURKE
 Press-Herald Sports Editor

The hometown series between North and South was won by North High, but the Bay League champion is South High.

Coach Jerry McIlvaine's Spartans won their second straight title with a 9-2 win over Mira Costa Friday, but it was anti-climatic compared with Wednesday when North won the 2-out-of-3 series by a 7-5 score at South.

The starting pitcher for South was Wade Linstad, who like his sidekick Dick Foulk, has a celebrated earned run average of less than 1.00.

When North greeted Linstad with four runs in the second inning, the heckling got the best of the pitcher and he came to the sideline to take on the entire North bench.

After North took a 7-0 lead, the noisy Saxons were finally quieted down with a 5-run recovery by South.

Having completed their season on Wednesday, the Saxons showed up Friday to coax a Mira Costa win over South, but when South led, 7-2, after six innings, the North clan quietly ducked out of sight to avoid the embarrassment of watching South celebrate its second straight title.

Considering the number of youthful players at North, the Saxons had a splendid 13-5 record. Coach Jim O'Brien's varsity lost three games to second division Redondo, Mira Costa and Santa Monica, otherwise North would have won the football, basketball and baseball titles.

Once again, though, three schools from the Torrance area are in the CIF "AAA" baseball playoffs. Besides South and North, West is runnerup in the Pioneer League.

With the revamping of the Bay League next fall, West will be in the Bay League with North and South. It will be interesting how this triangular affair will affect the traditional rivalry between North and South.

Sky Crown Won by Titans, 7-2

Rolling Hills won the Sky League baseball title Tuesday. Torrance High finished last.

The Titans turned in an 11-4 record to edge out Morningside and Culver City which had 10-5 records.

Beverly Hills and Leuzinger were 5-1 and Torrance 4-11. Leuzinger sent Torrance to the cellar with a 6-3 win in their finale.

Rolling Hills nudged Beverly Hills, 8-2, as Daryl Arenstein pitched a 4-hitter for the champions.

Since Morningside beat Culver City twice during the campaign, the Monarchs will go to the CIF playoffs as the league's No. 2 rep.

Willie Brown Will Coach Alma Mater

Willie Brown will join the staff at USC as an assistant football and baseball coach.

Brown graduated from Long Beach Poly High School in 1960, where he had earned CIF Southern Section player of the year honors in 1959 and led Poly to the CIF football championship in both 1958 and '59.

At USC, he earned three varsity football letters and three varsity baseball letters and played on national collegiate championship teams in both sports. He was the leading ground gainer on the '62 Trojan football team which went undefeated in 11 games including a Rose Bowl win over Wisconsin. He hit .352 as a centerfielder on the '63 Trojan baseball team which won the national collegiate title.

Brown was named USC's outstanding back of '62 and most inspirational player in '63. He holds the USC record for the longest run from scrimmage, 93 yards, against SMU in his sophomore year.

Ken Boyer Picked Up By Dodgers

Ken Boyer, the National League's most valuable player in 1964 when he led the St. Louis Cardinals to a pennant and a World Series victory, has joined the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Recently released by the Chicago White Sox, Boyer signed with the Dodgers as a free agent and will be used mainly as a pinchhitter. The third baseman's lifetime average is .289.

To make room for the veteran, who will turn 37 next Monday, the Dodgers optioned outfielder Cleo James to their Pacific Coast League.

Soccer Stars Play Today

The third week of inter-league All-Star soccer teams tournament will take place Sunday at the Continental Soccer Field in Torrance.

Prior to the all-star games, at 10:30 a.m. there will be an exhibition game between the Montebello Armenians and the Thistle Clubs.

WALTZING MATILDA... Sam Falcone of West High scored a run in one of the Warriors' two victories over Lawndale this week. West scored 1-0 and 7-2 triumphs to take second in the Pioneer League and qualify for the CIF baseball playoffs next weekend. (Press-Herald Photo)
